February Newsletter 2009

Dear Supporter,

I would like to thank you for your valued support and continuing backing as the Campaign prepares itself for the new challenges that present themselves in 2009, and moves onto the next stage to secure a suitable site for a memorial statue of Sir Keith Park. Also, it was a pleasure to meet so many of you at the Campaign's unveiling event of the selected final version of the Sir Keith Park maquette statue, on 30th October 2008 at City Hall, the offices of Boris Johnson, the Mayor of London.

This February 2009 issue of our newsletter contains a report and images of this recent Campaign event, and includes information on how you, as a supporter of Sir Keith Park, can further assist the Campaign at this critical stage. Your support so far has been invaluable but should you wish to help our cause further, then please assist the Campaign by contacting Westminster City Council to notify their Planning Committee that you wholeheartedly support the Campaign's effort and proposed scheme to see both a temporary statue of Sir Keith Park on the 4th Plinth in Trafalgar Square and then a permanent memorial statue situated in Waterloo Place in time for the 70th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain in 2010. Full details on how, and who, to contact at Westminster City Council are included in this newsletter, or you can contact the Campaign directly on: 020 7200 7332 or email: info@sirkeithpark.com or visit the website for further information.

The Campaign to date has been successful in securing support from many individuals and organisations including members of the extended Park family resident both in the UK and New Zealand, Battle of Britain veterans, current serving members and veterans of the RAF and our other forces, the Mayor of London - Boris Johnson, various MPs in both the UK and New Zealand, Peers, London Assembly Members and many more members of the general public. At the unveiling event recently held at City Hall, the Deputy Mayor, Richard Barnes GLAM, and I outlined in our speeches the Campaign's objectives of placing a temporary statue of Sir Keith on the Fourth Plinth in Trafalgar Square in Autumn 2009 for six months, followed by a permanent statue in Waterloo Place commemorating the 70th anniversary of the 'Battle of Britain' in September 2010.

The Campaign has now reached the point where we have submitted two planning applications to Westminster City Council Planning Department (09/01137/FULL: Planning Application for Trafalgar Square and 09/01139/FULL: Planning Application for Waterloo Place). The Campaign is optimistic that by Spring this year we will have navigated the planning process having consulted at all stages with the Council, and the various other statutory bodies and will then know fully what the Campaign must do to comply with the wishes of Westminster City Council to ensure both the installation of the temporary statue in 2009 and the permanent statue in Waterloo Place in 2010, are achieved.

I would like to thank all of our supporters for helping us to achieve our aims so far and to ask you for your help going forward by continuing to ensure we apply pressure to the relevant authorities to achieve the aim of a suitable memorial to Sir Keith Park, which recognises his role, and that of those he inspired and led, during the Battle of Britain.

Kind regards,

Terry Smith

Sir Keith Park Memorial Campaign - Planning Applications to Westminster City Council

Westminster City Council Planning Applications

The Campaign has submitted planning applications for a temporary statue of Sir Keith Park on the Fourth Plinth in Trafalgar Square (09/01137/FULL), and a permanent statue in Waterloo Place (09/01139/FULL) with Westminster City Council Planning Department (WCCPD) in early 2009. Both these applications follow previous submissions, discussions and correspondence with Westminster City Council and their Public Arts Advisory Panel (WCCPAAP), a panel who offer advice to WCCPD on planning application submissions concerning new statues. Initial responses from WCCPAAP have been positive regarding the final actual form of the statue proposal and the proposed permanent statue site in Waterloo Place. The Campaign team have also written to and met, or offered to meet, with local businesses, organisations and residents who are based around either the Fourth Plinth in Trafalgar Square or Waterloo Place, to inform them of the Campaign's aims and objectives. The responses we have received to date have been extremely positive.

Even at this advanced stage in the Campaign however, no decision can be taken for granted, so the Campaign would like to ask you for your help.

Sir Keith Park Memorial Campaign

Ref: 09/01137/FULL: Planning application for Trafalgar Square
09/01139/FULL: Planning application for Waterloo Place

Dear Mr. Gray,

I [INSERT YOUR NAME HERE] would like to indicate my support for the Sir Keith Park Memorial Campaign Planning Applications for the installation of both a temporary and a permanent statue of Air Chief Marshal Sir Keith Park, GCB, KBE, MC and Bar, DFC, RAF (15 June 1892 - 6 February 1975). The first planning application (09/01137/FULL: Planning Application for Trafalgar Square) is made with the agreement of the Mayor of London, Boris Johnson and the GLA, and is for a temporary installation of a statue as a work of art of Sir Keith Park on the Fourth Plinth in Trafalgar Square. The second application (09/01139/FULL : Planning Application for Waterloo Place), which has also the support of many varied organisations and individuals, is for a permanent bronze memorial statue of Sir Keith Park to be subsequently and permanently located in Waterloo Place, installed as an integral part of the 2010 commemoration of the 70th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain.

Sir Keith Park's tremendous achievements during the Battle of Britain (and also in both World War I and World War II) remain to date largely unrecognised by the majority of the public. I believe that a fitting recognition would be the placement of a memorial statue to Sir Keith, who apart from his remarkable personal achievements, and the achievements of all those he led, also stands as a figure of recognition for the commonwealth individuals who gave so much, both directly and indirectly, during the Second World War. Installing these statues of Sir Keith Park would go some way to raising the profile of the sacrifice of so many for all of us in our country today and commemorating a great man whose vital role has for far too long been overlooked.

Yours sincerely,
[YOUR NAME HERE]

Please send this letter, or a letter in your own words, indicating your support of the schemes to the address above as shown on the template.

We would like to thank the many supporters of the Sir Keith Park Memorial Campaign who attended the spectacular unveiling event held at City Hall, London, on Thursday, 30 October 2008. Terry Smith and the Campaign Team enjoyed meeting so many of you. The event was extremely successful with speeches given in support of the Campaign by Deputy Mayor, Richard Barnes GLAM and Terry Smith. The maquette was unveiled by Terence Stevens-Prior, great great nephew of Sir Keith Park, who attended with one of his children, Isabella. Also present representing the Park family was Laurette Cummins, great great niece of Sir Keith Park. The Deputy Mayor spoke of his personal connection to the Battle of Britain and was very happy, as were all other supporters, to see and meet the various veterans of the Battle of Britain who attended the unveiling event.

Those present were impressed by the representation of the final statue of Sir Keith Park created by the talented international sculptor Mr. Leslie Johnson. Mr. Johnson's many previous works include a recently unveiled statue of Brian Clough OBE and the 'Slavery Memorial Statue', backed by Boris Johnson, Mayor of London - the model of which was unveiled in August 2008 and will eventually be installed in Hyde Park. Les Johnson was chosen to produce the final statue of the Sir Keith Park Memorial Campaign following proposals from various sculptors, the final proposal being selected by a group of Campaign supporters including the Sir Keith Park family, and having taken the views of various members of the Park family into consideration.

The Campaign would also like to make a special thank you to the Deputy Mayor of London Richard Barnes GLAM, and his GLA colleagues who attended, and to the six Battle of Britain veterans, who attended on the day and who have offered so much support to the Campaign by attending all our events and sharing their stories with so many of you. Also the various MPs and Lords, members of the Park family and many supporters who were welcomed to the early-ish morning event.
